

The Bible

“You are free to all that is in the Bible. It is a never-failing treasure, filled with boundless stores of grace. It is the bank of heaven: you may draw from it as much as you please without hindrance or abatement. Bring nothing with you except faith. Bring as much faith as you can muster, and you are welcome to all that is in the Bible. There is not a promise, not a word in it, that is not yours. In the depths of tribulation, let it comfort you. Amid waves of distress, let it cheer you. When sorrows surround you, let it be your helper. This is your Father’s love-token. Let it never be shut and covered with dust. You are free to it, so use your freedom.”

Charles Spurgeon, Joy in Your Life

“This Book contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Read it to be wise, believe it to be saved, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler’s map, the pilgrim’s staff, the pilot’s compass, the soldier’s sword, and the Christian’s charter. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully.”

“For this reason we also thank God without ceasing, because when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also effectively works in you who believe”. 1Thessalonians 2:13

John MacArthur, MacArthur Study Bible

“When I read the Bible.....GOD talks to me. When I study.....I prepare myself to talk to others.” D.L. Moody
